

Every little thing on your boat adds up

The items that make your boat safe and comfortable may not seem very costly when you buy them individually. But if you ever need to replace them after something unexpected happens, you will quickly discover how much they add up. Please take a few moments to complete this Boat Inventory Worksheet. Then, keep it in a safe place on dry land so you can refer to it if the need arises.

Item	Original Cost	Date Purchased
Boat Equipment
Anchor(s)
Bilge Pump
Boarding Stairs
Boat Cover
Boat Hook
Chains
Charts
Docking Fender
Fathometer
Foot Bellows
Gas Tank (portable)
Generator
Ladder (portable)
Lines (anchor or mooring)
Manual Head (portable)
Navigation Aids
Oars
Paddle
Pilot Seat (not mounted)
Power Hailer (hand-held)
Propane Fuel Cylinder
Radar Detectors
Radar Reflectors
Ropes
Seats (portable)
Shoring
Strobe (portable)
Water Temperature Gauge

BOAT INVENTORY

Item	Original Cost	Date Purchased
Safety Needs
Air Horn (hand held)
Battery-Operated Stern Light
Dinghy
Direction Finder (portable)
Distress Marker
Dye Marker
Flags
Fire Extinguisher
First Aid Kit
Flares
Gas Sniffer (portable)
Horn (hand held)
Life Cushion(s)
Life Jacket(s)
Life Preserver(s)
Life Raft(s) (inflatable)
Life Vest(s)
Lights (portable)
Man Overboard Pole
Searchlight (portable)
Ship-to-Shore Radio
Whistle
Leisure Essentials
Cabin Heater (portable)
Cushions (loose)
Curtains
Deck Chairs (portable)
Deck Storage Box (portable)
Dinnerware (non-skid)
Fan (portable)
Fish Finder (portable)
Gas Grill (portable)
Other Items:		