

OFFER OF MEDICAL PAYMENTS COVERAGE

State Farm® is offering you Medical Payments Coverage with a limit of $1,000.

About Medical Payments Coverage

Medical Payments Coverage pays for reasonable expenses for necessary treatments, procedures, products, and services for bodily injury sustained in a motor vehicle accident. The total payment for all these expenses shall not exceed the policy limits you select for this coverage. The allowance for incurred funeral expenses shall not exceed $3,000 or the total limit for Medical Payments Coverage, whichever is lower. Bodily injury must be discovered and the treatment begun within one year after the date of the accident.

Medical Payments Coverage pays the above expenses for bodily injury sustained by:

1. you, your spouse, and resident family members of the first person shown as a named insured on the Declarations while occupying:
 - a. a your car,
 - b. a newly acquired car,
 - c. a temporary substitute car, or
 - d. a trailer attached to one of the above carsas these vehicles are defined in the policy, or if struck as a pedestrian by a motor vehicle, or
2. any other person while occupying:
 - a. a your car,
 - b. a newly acquired car,
 - c. a temporary substitute car, or
 - d. a trailer attached to one of the above cars as these vehicles are defined in the policy.

The Medical Payments Coverage limit, if any, you selected will not increase, regardless of the number of vehicles insured under this policy.

If you have purchased Medical Payments Coverage on more than one policy, you will not be able to add together the limits of this coverage to determine the total amount of coverage available. In addition to the above limitation, if you, your spouse, or a resident family member are injured while occupying a car owned by you, your spouse, or one of those family members, the only Medical Payments Coverage that applies is the coverage available from the policy which insures that vehicle. You may not collect from policies which insure other cars owned by you, your spouse, or your resident family members.

Higher limits of $2,000, $5,000, $10,000, $25,000, $50,000, and $100,000 are also available. If you have any questions or if you want higher limits, please contact your State Farm agent.
